

PO Box 720634
Oklahoma City, OK 73172
www.maryfallin.org

PRESORTED STD
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
OKLAHOMA CITY, OK
PERMIT NO. 1078

A pair of black cowboy boots with intricate embroidery. The shafts of the boots feature a large yellow circle with a red diagonal sash and green leaf-like patterns. Below the circle are several white, teardrop-shaped cutouts. The boots are positioned side-by-side, facing forward.

Don't Miss the Fallen for Congress
Campaign Roundup!

On Tuesday October 24, all your friends are callin'
To join us at a wingding for our candidate, Mary Fallin!

We'll eat and drink and josh and joke and sing a special ditty,
At the Centennial Rodeo Opry down in Stockyards City!

Don't put it off, pick up a pen and mark down that date,
For some of the best food and entertainment in the state!

Just turn off I-40 onto Agnew, headin' toward the river,
Turn left on Exchange and there you park your flivver!

The Rodeo Opry's best "rising stars" will all be on hand,
A great live show just for you with the Rodeo Opry Band!

Vince Gill and Jimmy Webb wrote our new Centennial song,
"Oklahoma Rising" is its name and you can sing along!

Oh yes — bring a buck to pass the hat and see what we can fetch,
To help Mary's race for Congress down the final stretch!

The goin's-on will start at six, the show starts about seven,
Music that sounds so good you know Bob Wills ain't just in heaven!

This party ain't no free-for-all, this gig is for just a few,
So come and join the VIPs (yessir — that means you!)

Yee Hah!

Tuesday, October 24th
6:00pm

Centennial Rodeo Opry
2221 Exchange Avenue • OKC

Paid for by Fallin for Congress

$250 per couple — VIP seating
$50 per couple — General Admission
Visa & MasterCard accepted

Please Reply:
Ashley Aduddell
405-608-1192 or
Ashley@maryfallin.org

I-40, Agnew Exit
South on Agnew to Exchange Ave.
Turn left on Exchange
Across from Langstons